Today i'm here to document everything on Rebeccah Kruleski, also known as StarGiantProductions and Rebeccah Starlight (before 2024).

IMPORTANT: REBECCAH KRULESKI IS 27 YEARS OLD.

She was born in August of 1996.

By the time she did these things she had been an adult for years.

This is an updated, more refined version of a previous document I made.

These timestamps are taken from this video

NOTE FROM THE AUTHOR OF THIS DOCUMENT

I want to state for clarification: this is not information I found. This is all taken from Mr. Enter's video on Rebeccah Kruleski, AKA StarGiantProductions/Rebeccah Starlight.

In the link below are the original videos. They are where all of this information came from.

CONTENT WARNING

LENGTH WARNING

Please note that this thread is extremely long and can get exhausting to read/go through. It is absolutely exhausting to go through. I have been working on documenting the Rebeccah drama for many, many hours.

WARNING TO SOCIETY ITSELF

There’s some things we need to make very clear

Someone named MysticMongrel is mentioned at times throughout the video. Enter doesn’t immediately warn people of this user in the video (only at the very end of the video).

DO NOT, UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, CONTACT OR ATTEMPT TO CONTACT THIS USER!

In Enter's own words, MONGREL IS WORSE THAN REBECCAH.

I REPEAT: WORSE THAN REBECCAH.

Enter's only mistake in this video is not warning of MysticMongrel early on in the video.

Her username first appears approximately 7 ½ minutes into the video, Enter does not instantly elaborate on who this person is.

Also, this has to be said…

DO NOT, UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, CONTACT REBECCAH!

She is a danger to society itself and just reading this document and watching Enter's video will show WHY.

BACKGROUND

Mr Enter (also known as John Rozanski) is a YouTuber who reviews cartoons, and has been doing so since 2013. He's most known for "Animated Atrocities" video series, where he criticizes episodes of shows he doesn't like, movies he hates, and (on rare occasion) even web animations.
The opposite "Admirable Animations" discusses shows, TV episodes, movies and web animations he likes.

Rebeccah was an editor for Mr. Enter and was commonly known by fans as StarGiantProductions. She was brought on during the summer of 2018, and was fired in the summer of 2021. She is the only editor Mr. Enter has fired, in June of 2021.

TL;DR for Rebeccah's firing
She was fired for workplace harassment, being a bad editor, leaking private materials, general narcissism, and for generally being bad to work with. She also abused and underpaid many of her workers.

CUT TO OCTOBER 2021

Mr. Enter went into StarGiantProductions in great detail in a video titled "Regarding StarGiantProductions". This video was released October 8, 2021.

In it, he explains why Rebeccah was fired and dives into her very abusive behavior as a boss when she was operating her YouTube channel, with her own staff members.

He allows his friends to give testimonies as to how Rebeccah abused them. He also documented his own experiences with Rebeccah himself.

Enter considered her editing skills to be poor.

Among Rebeccah's editing errors were being bad at the timing of Enter's avatars as well as bad at matching the avatars' emotions with the subject matter, backgrounds behind his avatars changing for no apparent reason, adding in things Enter never asked for, putting jpgs with pixelated edges over footage (and avatars had pixelated backgrounds, despite Enter's team giving her transparent avatar images as well as backgrounds) and so on.

Rebeccah also lost the one trait that Enter hired her for: her editing speed.

As time went on her work became slower and slower, the quality of her editing did not increase to compensate.

Rebeccah is also very poor at digital conversations, as she would interrupt a current conversation on Enter's Discord server about business things, to start replying to things that happened hours earlier.

Sometimes she would insert herself in conversations, ignoring what people were talking about in said conversations to talk about what was on her mind.

Even after being warned about these things she ignored these. Rebeccah considers herself "Enter's best editor" and frequently calls Enter an abuser.

Many complaints from Enter's team followed. MintKitten, who was known once as Hope and now goes by Wes, blocked Rebeccah.

Enter elaborates on this in the hour-long video uploaded in March 2024.

Rebeccah also gave Kota, at the time a new editor for Enter, some "editing advice" (despite being a shit editor herself).

Rebeccah made people uncomfortable.

One standout example is her going to Wes (then known by Hope) and calling them "too suicidal", and said they "used it for brownie points or manipulation".

Rebeccah used a name Cerra previously went by, that he doesn't want on the internet (Rebeccah ignored this).
She even ruined a surprise for Enter's social media account by contacting CrimsonMayhem (which she did without permission) and basically told him Cerra was running the account.

Crimson proceeded to tweet this out and pretty much spoiled the whole surprise.

Rebeccah tried to deny this.

She proved to Enter and his team that she could not be trusted with a secret. She's also talked shit about Crimson in the past on the server.

Rebeccah has stolen many of Enter's ideas and works verbatim (such as making a Cartoon Network version of Nick-O-Rama, even getting the same artist who worked on Nick-O-Rama to make thumbnails for her videos).

Rebeccah had an obsession with pedophiles. This will be explained in detail during Enter's 2024 video on Rebeccah.

Actually, Rebeccah calls anyone she doesn't like an abuser. She called Crimson an abuser.

In Enter's opinion, narcissism was the only fitting diagnosis for Rebeccah. But Enter has worked with narcissists and neurotics before; the one mistake they've never made? Attacking Enter's friends.

In the summer of 2020, Enter was suffering from depression, and according to Enter, "I think Rebeccah knew that."

She wanted to do a big surprise (make an animatic of one of his fiction scripts). It was meant to be 22 minutes long. Enter's birthday lands on July 21; Rebeccah thought one artist could get the video done by July 18... starting on July 13.

For those not aware of how animation works, that length of animation takes a lot of time, and it would take at least two weeks for a professional team to do what Rebeccah wanted a hobbyist to do in 5 days. Enter says this was a major factor in her firing.

MintKitten (now known as Wes, and previously known as Hope) gives a testimony.

Beginning of MintKitten's testimony

Wes was confronted by Rebeccah right before the latter was banned and asked about why he blocked her in front of Enter's team.

Wes was very upset with her at the time and simply responded that "I could block anyone for any reason". He found this inappropriate of himself and thought of the implications that quote could bring for him. Rebeccah simply annoyed him and so he blocked her, finding it funny how the whole situation led to him getting fired.

Before this, Wes used to work for Rebeccah for free. He was offered a payment from Rebeccah if he made a thumbnail for her, to which she agreed. It was used in an April Fools video, but Wes never got the payment he was promised.

Wes was the hobbyist that Rebeccah got to make Enter's birthday animatic. He wasn't getting paid for this either. This combined with being rushed to the 18th to make something that takes months for pros to do, caused Wes to have a meltdown. The project was dropped after Wes had a meltdown and replaced with an audio drama of the episode instead.

This didn't stop Rebeccah from putting editors on crunch time. One screenshot has her demanding editors edit their sections of one of her top 10 videos by midnight of the day she demanded it.

Rebeccah emotionally abused Wes. On September 24, 2020, she confronted Wes about screenshots she found on Kiwifarms about him shit talking her (to which Wes has confirmed he did do to her, for the reasons above). Wes did feel a little bad for her so he apologized.

The conversation shifted, with Rebeccah calling Wes "too suicidal" and "using suicide for brownie points or manipulation". Rebecca suggested she thinks "Wes is a good person" in the same breath as if she said nothing wrong. Wes found her comments cruel, not to mention she brought it up out of nowhere when the conversation had nothing to do about Wes being suicidal.

Wes mentions briefly that she misgendered him in the past, but that it's "not important".

End of MintKitten's testimony

Rebeccah continues to misgender Wes as of March 15, 2024.

Before she was fired, she also shortchanged the artist who did Enter's current avatar set - for what was supposed to be a $450 work, for her avatar set she paid $250. Rebeccah then randomly stopped using them.

For one of her videos, "Every MLP Episode Ranked From Best To Worst", people were paid $2 per segment.

The video was an hour and five minutes long and there's 26 episodes of the season Rebeccah was ranking.

Enter points out how this is only about 5%-10% of what he pays in this regard. In that one video, she only did 10 episodes so that'd be around 1% of what Enter pays.

Grace (AKA “Graceland”) gives a testimony.

Beginning of Grace's testimony

Grace was a voice actor, an editor and even a secretary for Rebeccah. At first she was a friend of Rebeccah's, and working for her used to be fun.

However, Rebeccah did put a lot of pressure on her employees. Grace was originally supposed to do all of the MLP video. She thought it'd be fine even if it was a lot of work, as she'd be getting "$2 a segment" and thought she could be able to balance both this and school.

She was wrong. As the day got closer get began getting stressed and had a panic attack. But she didn't tell Rebeccah as she didn't want Rebeccah to make her think she failed her.

Grace told her after the d-day passed that "we were able to get the video up". Her panic attack was caused by seeing the 45 minute length of the video after she edited all of the audio (which ended up being even longer in the end product).

This wasn't the first time this had happened. Grace talked with many editors in VC about how hard it was to do big projects on short deadlines and complained about getting lower pay than the artists.

Grace found out during a conversation with a fellow editor that she was being paid the same amount as the other editor despite doing more work than him.

After multiple complaints the editors all had a meeting with Rebeccah, who was able to agree to make a standard amount per things we would edit like for her Cartoon Network videos or "Pixar Path".

Rebeccah told Grace she usually just picks a random number to pay people and for Grace to tell her next time she had any trouble. Despite that, she was still seen as someone that treated her editors poorly.

Grace wanted to help Rebeccah and created a clock-in sheet, where they could see how long it takes for each editor to edit each segment. They planned on paying them 7 dollars an hour.

For a while things were good... until Enter fired Rebeccah. Grace gave Rebeccah $300 because she knew she was having a hard time. Rebeccah said she needed the money to move to Texas to be with her girlfriend.

Rebeccah wanted to make a video on John but Grace said it'd cause pointless drama, and that she needed to focus on her own image. At the time Grace was dealing with drama herself (she doesn't want to go into that). Rebeccah finally agreed after a while of back and forth.

Things were fine, right?

Nope. Just a few hours later Rebeccah pinged people in the staff chat of the server that she made a script and wanted opinions. She did not keep her word; Grace saw in Rebeccah's script "Enter is an abuser, and Sarah and Hope are bad people". Grace was unhappy with this, taking the word "abuser" very seriously and found serious problems with Enter being called that.

Grace ended her friendship with Rebeccah and told her to keep the $300. Grace thought this was the end of it, but got an alert from Jordan's server. Grace (who didn't usually talk there) asked the people there what happened, to which members there responded that Rebeccah made a cartoon reviewer tier list and talked about Grace in it. After she watched the video, it made Grace cry because Rebeccah called Grace "her business partner". Grace felt hurt as she felt like Rebeccah only called her a business partner and not a real friend.

Ava was getting the money back Grace gave Rebeccah even though Grace told her she could keep it. Grace felt sick afterwards. Rebeccah lied and said she left Grace because "Grace couldn't take criticism" when it was the other way around.

Eventually it stopped, and Grace thought things were over. Apparently Grace got a message saying the others needed her. Grace read the script Rebeccah posted on her Community page, and felt like her stomach dropped.

Rebeccah had lied again and said the reason she didn't make a video months ago was that Grace told her that "you will like Enter because I do, and I want everyone to find him flawless". Grace never said this, saying Enter is the complete opposite.

Grace came to realize Rebeccah was a bad boss, and that she has next to no control over her emotions. Grace orders Rebeccah to never contact her again.

End of Grace's testimony

Afterwards Rebeccah made a community post where she shits on people she hurt. She says "they may not have been bad people but they've been bad people to me".

Rebeccah says she did nothing wrong during the cartoon reviewer tier list (where she ranks Enter an F tier).

"By the logic of reality I did nothing wrong."

She also says this in the same community post:

"If I do have a problem with a person, I should speak up about it and not stay silent."

Just remember both of these quotes.

Rebeccah made a video trying to insult Enter and his friends (titled Ryanimations Reviews: DC Superhero Girls # Frenemies). She continues to lie and take things out of context.

A troll named Casey falsely accused Wes/MintKitten of doxxing him, which caused Wes a great deal of emotional turmoil, before Casey finally admitted it was made up. Wes called Casey a pedophile, not Crimson, but Rebeccah took the screenshot out of context. Rebeccah made a video talking about this drama front and center.

"CrimsonMayhem was a former friend of mine. He also as cut ties with me back in April 2020. Why did Crimson cut ties with me and abuse me behind the scenes?"

"And yes, both are related to my recent backlash."

"Instead he went behind my back and shit talked me on Twitter. Again."

Enter has said nothing worse about Crimson than Crimson has said about Enter. CrimsonMayhem bought into Casey's allegations.

Rebeccah told Enter and her followers that Crimson left Enter's team because he didn't like Enter's negative opinion on DC Super Hero Girls 2019. This is the exact same opinion Rebeccah had that she used to insult

Enter and his friends, all while claiming Crimson was still her friend.
Enter calls Rebeccah (AKA StarGiantProductions) a toxic person, a bad employee and an even worse boss.

Rebeccah has systematically hurt almost everyone on Enter's team.

Enter wishes Rebeccah good luck in the future, because "when everything comes tumbling down, you'll have nothing else".

Then things got bad.

CUT TO MARCH 2024

Mr. Enter didn't expect things to change with Rebeccah. Unfortunately, he was wrong. Things have changed for the dire.

Enter now considers Rebeccah as a dangerous person. In his own words, "Rebeccah is not only an abuser but has created an environment of predation. She has also broken the law."

For the past week, Enter has been connecting the dots of the story of what Rebeccah has been doing the last two years and even prior to this. Rebeccah has multiple victims, some of which were hurt in very serious ways. Some are still recovering.

At the time Enter made this video, Rebeccah still had her social media accounts despite her actions. Enter gathered a team to research Rebeccah's crimes.

The main investigation team largely consisted of his own employees:
Cerra
Graceland
Jordan, also known as ChikoCheez

Wes and Kota [they became engaged during the video's production]
Matti

Another person only known by Phineas (who has been tracking Rebeccah's behavior for a while) also contacted Enter. Yet another person, named Lio Convoy, researched many people tangentially related to Rebeccah. Phineas also connected his team to many of the victims as well, as well as those trying to help them.

Another person named Matti was a former artist for Rebeccah and provided insight into Rebeccah's inner circle.

Enter says this:

"Buckle up. I'm leaving all of the cards on the table. I will pull no punches. We are systematically going through everything Rebeccah Kruleski has done to people."

#1: Rebeccah allowed groomers in her server for months on end.

Rebeccah allowed three groomers and degenerates on her Discord server despite evidence and attention being brought to it.

The first of these was someone called N3K0Pan. Her real life name is Ariana Timbol and is a 29 year old.

N3K0Pan was not only a member of Rebeccah's Discord server, but also a moderator and an artist for Rebeccah.

N3K0Pan (known in real life as Ariana Timbol) was born on April 29, 1994 and went by the pseudonyms "Asianchiq", "N3K0Pan", "Nekopan", "LEDragon" and "Neru". She was 25 in 2019 when her alleged crimes took place.

In March of 2019, Ariana met a 17 year old named End0 (at the time, named lizard SCREAMS) on a Discord server containing both adults and minors. After End0 admitted she was underage, Ariana sent End0 porn.

Later, in April 2019, Ariana sent End0 nude drawings of a real-life 16 year old (who goes by the name Ulti).

Ariana has also written fanfiction of her and this 16 year old girl, engaging in sexual activities. On April 8, she read these pornographic stories to both Endo and Ulti.

Ariana admitted that she began to date the 16 year old Ulti around summertime.

Ariana: “When did she and I become an actual thing?"
"It was like... summertime I think?"

This lasted until July 2019. Ariana admitted to many of her actions on a November 2020 confession call.

Ariana: “When it came to the relationship I was- I realized, and thought long and hard, I did not give myself time to get over a previous breakup I had of the 3 year relationship, and I ended up jumping into something that I ended up realizing this was a really bad idea. Like, a really fucking bad idea.”

Anon 1: “What… what do you mean?”

Ariana: “Like I, he was turning 18 in about a month or so at the time.”

Anon 1: “Oh no… 18?”

Ariana: “Here’s the thing- there’s not- no sexual. There was no sexual anything.”

Anon 1: “But why did you tell me that you’d do that (call?) and everything to my face… all the time? You would smear it to my face.”

Anon 2: “You literally sent me some sexual roleplays you’ve had with him.”

Ariana: “Well-”

Anon 1: “You also talked about it in a- in the- in the group chat. That we used to be in.”

Ariana: “I meant like we’re- we’re not sending nudes or anything, not like that. No.”

Anon 2: “But you still had a sexual conversation with a minor.”

Ariana: “And I realize that was the dumbest fucking thing I did. I accept that.”

After this, the group attempted to contact as many people as possible about Ariana’s actions. On November 5, 2020 a user (Jay, going by @ GUCCIMONIE on X/Twitter) posted a thread bringing up many of Ariana’s scandals from tracing to sending harassers towards her detractors. On the same day, an email was sent to several people Ariana had worked with - including Rebeccah. It linked to Jay’s thread and suggested that Rebeccah do a background check on Ariana.

The following day, the user who sent the email claims that Rebecca did, in fact, read it. It is assumed that Rebeccah showed Ariana the email.

Rebeccah (in a now-deleted video from January 3, 2021: Talking about My Abuse, YouTube Issues & 2020 Problems) says this:

Rebeccah: “You know what pisses me off even more? Whenever I introduce someone to my staff and then somebody comes to me and says that they’re terrible with no evidence or false evidence! Or rather past experiences from years ago! [Ariana] is an artist of mine who started in the MLP list. About a week after that video went up I got an email saying that she was an abuser!"

"I looked into this and [Ariana] had to explain to me the correct situation! Well she didn’t explain the correct way, more like she explained the situation and that she accepted that she made past mistakes and toxic behavior! But the problem is these assholes that were abusing her didn’t believe that! Think like the ‘I love Kim Possible a lot’ situation.”

Ariana had a lot of sway over Rebeccah. Ariana did in fact find out the contents of said email, and when that happened she started harassing the victims, or sending people (some of which alleged to be minors/children) to harass the victims on her behalf.

In a DM from December 2020 between her and Grace (who was editing for Rebeccah), even then, Rebeccah was still trusting Ariana over someone she was then dating, LovelyLina.
Lina claimed that Ariana was an abuser, but Rebeccah broke it off and called Lina a liar.

-----Remember this as it comes up again later in the video-----

Remember, Ariana/N3K0Pan was a moderator on Rebeccah's server and an artist for Rebeccah.

On April 21, 2023, Rebeccah was brought in to a group chat made by LioConvoy. She was prompted to give her side of the story - to Lio, End0 and End0’s friend Asuka. The call lasted around 45 minutes and ended with Rebecca storming off:

Lio: “Sometime tomorrow-”

Rebeccah: “Nope. This is the end. I’m done with this. I’ve been trying to tell you that this is the day I want to solve everything.” (End0 briefly says “what” during this.)

Lio: “This isn’t up to you. You wronged somebody else but you’re trying to set terms on when something’s over? When you’re sitting here going in circles? You really think that’s how that works?”

(Rebeccah refuses to answer for a few seconds but eventually does)

Rebeccah: “No, it doesn’t. Go on.”

Lio: “Yeah. Here’s what’s going to happen: you’re gonna make time sometime tomorrow and you’re gonna talk to them properly about all of this. Because they got a lot of other stuff they need to ask you. Including… chat logs where you are talking to Rosa [Rey Ramsey] about [Ariana].”

Rebeccah: “I don’t remember these.”

Lio: “Well it’s a good thing that we have these chat logs isn’t it?”

End0: “Yeah.”

Asuka: “Yeah.”

Lio: “Cause we’re gonna remind you, we’re gonna refresh your memory.”

(Immediately after Lio says this, Rebecca disconnects)

End0: “Did she leave?”

Asuka: “Oh my god.”

End0: “She fucking left!”

Apparently throughout the call, Rebeccah failed constantly to answer questions, claims she didn’t read the email because it was in her spam folder, and so much more.

At some point during the call, End0 claims Ariana banned End0 from Rebeccah’s Discord server:

Rebeccah: “Y-you’re right. Unfortunately I hate to say this, but [Ariana] was one of my mods. So… whoops.

End0: “That’s why I was banned.”

Rebeccah: “Yeah…”

Asuka: “And also-”

End0: “That’s why i’m kinda like, y’know, that’s why i’m saying there’s possibility that there was a kid that was groomed and [Ariana] must’ve banned them without you guys even noticing. Cause I know you guys deleted your server, the original one where she was modding.”

Eventually, Ariana was banned from her Discord server after 8 months. Not for violating any rules, but for inactivity.

Rebeccah claims she didn’t know anything about Ariana/N3K0Pan.

She makes the claim in a 3 hour video titled “Addressing My Abuse” (it was taken down but was archived). This video is largely about Mr. Enter firing Rebeccah, where she says her editing is good and that she isn’t a narcissist.

Rebeccah: “The two actual things that you cannot force me to do are to admit that i’m wrong and force me to like something. You can’t judge what kind of person I am until you know me, and you can’t say that YOU could edit better until you have MY knowledge, MY judgment, and MY condition.”

“And it’s not just random comments on various websites that get to me. People have made entire websites documenting what I do, most infamously Kiwifarms.”

(As of March 15, 2024, when Enter's new video on StarGiant was made, Rebeccah doesn’t even have a Kiwifarms thread.)

“I am not, have never been, and never will be toxic or abusive. I am not a bad boss, i’m a great boss, and will stand by these statements forever. I am not a narcissist, [Mr. Enter]. And I do not have Narcissistic Personality Disorder.”

(the entire video is like this.)

-----This video is important. We will look at it's contents multiple times throughout this.-----

She does briefly address the allegations:

Rebeccah: “I don’t know anything present about [Ariana], so people saying that I had a pedophile in my Discord server KNOWINGLY for eight months are all liars.”

In her Discord server, Rebeccah took the effort to make sure to accuse anyone accusing her of having any involvement of the N3K0Pan/Ariana situation of a court sentence.

Her statement:

“@ everyone Any person that thinks that I intentionally allowed minors to be groomed by [Ariana] will be banned and given a court sentence. You are not allowed to be in here if you believe in this shit. It is slander at this rate.”

However, Rebeccah would contradict herself in the same 3 hour video.

Rebeccah: “Speaking of which, I once had an artist named [Ariana]. All she did was draw a couple of pieces of art for me, most notably being the ‘Top 20 Worst Fairly Odd Parents’ video thumbnail.” “Back to [Ariana], she’s part of some drama. Accused of grooming. That is all I know about her. Did she really do this? I DON’T KNOW! I really don’t!”

“People think I still have contact with her, the last time that I messaged her was May 2021. I don’t know what she has done afterwards. Stop going to me about [Ariana], I know NOTHING about her. No one in my Discord server has any contact with her currently. If she’s a pedophile or not, that’s up for the police to decide and not me.”

(Rebeccah was alerted to Ariana’s actions on November 5, 2020.)

However, Rebeccah didn't consider Ariana a predator because, according to her, "it takes the courts to decide if someone is a pedophile." Legal courts do not determine if someone is a pedophile. They litigate child predation.

Rebeccah is a manipulative liar. She lies at any opportunity.

She's contradicts a statement about The Loud House having pedophilia, saying she "doesn't think it has pedophilia", when she stated in Mr. Enter's Discord server about her "top 20 worst animations of 2020" that The Loud House has a "pedophilia episode".

#5 on the list, an episode of My Little Pony: Pony Life is considered by Rebeccah as being pedophilic because of a joke in the episode:

Rebeccah: "Rarity is a dangerous pedophile, that is what this episode is. This episode shows that Rarity has Spike CHAINED, doing a sexual pose. Rarity is an adult and Spike is a child. This is fucking disgusting in every single level."

Rebeccah goes on and on about this.

"This is what normalizing pedophilia looks like."

"The sad part was this episode was doing fine until it brought up the notion of normalizing pedophilia."

"This is even worse than Fluttershy's entire arc on pedophilia that lasted multiple episodes cause at least in THAT arc she never encountered any children throughout it."

There was no Fluttershy "arc" on pedophilia in My Little Pony: Pony Life, and "Rarity chaining Spike" was played as a harmless joke in-universe that lasts for about five seconds.

Rebeccah's only real smart action during this is a tendency to delete her footprints. She deleted her Discord server, and her messages in Enter's server shows a generic orange Discord avatar with the username indicating this is a "Deleted User".

Despite her Discord server being deleted, Enter and his team were still able to prove these comments were Rebecca. A picture she sent in her Discord server matches a thumbnail of one of her videos on her (now-deleted) YouTube channel.

Rebeccah received backlash for the video "worst animations of 2020", which contains her "pedophilia" comments mentioned about Pony Life as well as the claims of The Loud House having pedophilia. She also believed that South Park's COVID-19 special had Randy Marsh causing the pandemic in real life.
She also admits that she had no clue what a pedophile was until she turned 20.

THE BAN LIST

-----This is something else Enter will go back to-----

She also has a ban list from her Discord, where many people have been banned for being "pedophiles" (as she claims).

This ban list is also incredibly stupid. Unbelievably stupid**.

This list includes people such as:

Butch Hartman (for being a "con artist")
Danny Elfman (for being "Anti-Feminist" and for "Sexual Harassment")
EDP (for being a "pedophile")
David Zaslav (for being a "abuser", a "con artist" and for "conspiracy)
DONALD J. TRUMP (yes, the 45th president of the United States, for "conspiracy")
JOE BIDEN (this is real, ask Mr. Enter... banned for "anti-semitism")
Tara Strong (for the same reasons as Biden)
End0 (for being an "abuser")
Ariana/N3K0Pan (for the same reasons as EDP)
Cosmodore (for the same reasons as EDP)
Among others.

Again, you may think this is a joke, but again, this ban list is real.

She admits that she only actually adds someone to the ban list when they're brought to her attention. However despite the allegations of Ariana/N3K0Pan being a pedophile, Rebeccah did not ban her for 8 months.

In October 2019 she was given a cease-and-desist order from Twelve Forever creator Julia Vickerman, who was outed for being a pedophile due to a tumblr post from 2010 where she, who was 26 at the time, was sexually attracted to a 14 year old boy.

After accusing Julia of pedophilia and getting the C&D order, Rebeccah claimed she'd never call someone a pedophile unless a legal judge determines they are.

However, she still accused Pony Life and The Loud House of "pedophilia episodes" in late 2020, as mentioned above.

She planned on doing a video on Cosmodore but cancelled it.

She made another response video just a few weeks after her 3 hour video (titled "[OLD] 2023 Response Video - Rebeccah Starlight)". It was much shorter at 27 minutes but still has her failing to accept criticism of her poor editing skills, and calling Mr Enter an abuser.

Rebeccah: "My biggest fuck-up was regarding [Ariana]. I fucked up big time with her, people tell me she was a creep with emails and even videos as evidence."

"[Ariana] manipulated me into thinking she wasn't."

Just weeks prior she stated that she didn't know anything present about Ariana/N3K0Pan.

"A part of why I didn't ban her earlier was that in 2019 I accused [Julia Vickerman] of being a creep, but then they got their lawyer to try and sue me, but I was able to avoid it because I took the video down."

Rebeccah essentially believed that making a video on Julia Vickerman (accusing her of being a pedophile) was the same as banning Ariana from their server.

She then states this in the same video:

"I was worried if I called [Ariana] a creep, I would have had the same issue. Plus she wasn't arrested and that kinda… had… problems…"

Ariana was accused of child predation, not "being a creep".

A reminder of what Ariana did:

Sending porn to known minors

Possession of drawn porn of a real-life minor

Distributing drawn porn of a real-life minor

Writing fiction of herself and a minor engaging in sexual activities

Reading sexual fiction in a voice chat with minors present

Dating a minor

She then admits she "kept a creep [Ariana] on his server for eight months" in the same video, clearly downplaying Ariana's actions as being "a creep" rather than a groomer.

Rebeccah then admits that she only kept Ariana on the server because, in her words "I thought [Ariana] wasn't a creep. [Ariana] was nice to the people on my server."

In the video, Rebeccah refuses to state what evidence Ariana showed to prove that she wasn't a creep, and says that "if I had known sooner that [Ariana] was a creep, I would've banned her immediately" despite being shown evidence more than half a year prior.

One of Ariana's victims actually talked to Rebeccah in a Twitter/X DM, where she responds that she (again) doesn't know if Ariana is a groomer, despite having tons of evidence to prove it.

Rebeccah then says this in the video:

"Which in hindsight, social media shouldn’t have minors, but that’s another story.”

Despite the obvious that there is no excuse to allow a groomer [Ariana] on your server for 8 months and not ban her.

Rebeccah then claims that “PhantomStrider and Kai Smash Universe told me [Ariana] was a good person so I listened to them and left it at that. Now they both think she’s a horrible person.”

Kai was Ariana’s boyfriend and were dating at the time they were in Rebeccah’s server.

According to LioConvoy, PhantomStrider immediately cut all ties with Ariana the second he heard about what she had done.

IMPORTANT: DO NOT FUCKING CONTACT PHANTOMSTRIDER ABOUT ARIANA/N3K0PAN UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES!

Rebeccah then says her sins should be forgotten:

“‘Your sins should not be forgotten, Rebeccah!’ No, they should. If enough time has passed then it’s best to move on from them. Especially when they’re minor or might not exist.”

Despite the fact, that she endangered minors by allowing Ariana on the server for 8 months despite her being a known pedophile.

She has done this three times.

SEAN SOHR AND BRANDON "THE BRONY PONY" HACKWITH

Ariana/N3K0Pan is not the only person that Rebeccah allowed on the server, despite their actions.

Sean Sohr was another one of Rebeccah's artists and was born on December 11, 2002, making him 21 as of March 15, 2024.

He would do nothing but post bikini art of a 11 year old girl named Hilda (from the show titled Hilda), and was bullying other members on the server.

Rebeccah has favorited fetish art of multiple fictional minors. Ash and May from Pokemon (who are both 10), Madoka from Madoka Magicka (who is 14), Susan and Mary Test from Johnny Test (who are 13), among others.

Rebecca knew of this:

Rebecca: "For Sean, dozens of people in my server complained to me about this, and this was all of last year."

However, Rebeccah did nothing for a year about this individual, despite other server members sending her complaints (with some complaining about bullying).

"I was a nice person and decided to let [Sean] continue to be on my server. I would occasionally delete his art but not all the time."

Rebeccah would "occasionally delete his artwork, but not all of the time". Enter speculates that Sean would occasionally draw things that she liked.

Rebeccah actually hired Sean Sohr as an artist, over Matti (a much better artist she let go).
Sean has also written pedophilic fanfic.

Rebeccah tells when she FINALLY banned him:

"Then one day [Sean] posted a picture of a real girl the same age as Hilda on his Twitter. Now he claims it's his cousin."

She admits that she wasn't too bothered by this at first, but that "[Sean] kept DOING THIS SHIT even after being told numerous times to not do it."

Rebeccah didn't seem to care about this real child's bikini photo being posted, until Sean did it repeatedly.
"I DM'd him on Discord to make sure what he was doing was legal."

It's obviously not about the law at this point, it's that this dude Sean is a fucking predator.

"Either way I told [Sean] to not do it again. Then just a couple hours later he would post a picture of Hilda AGAIN in a sexual manner, and added a fictional adult in the background in love with her, with hearts around this man that looked 30 years old."

Sean Sohr was banned from the server, but on the ban list there are two Sean Sohrs, one of which being called “Garyfan” (who is not the same Sean Sohr!) This caused confusion, as many assumed that Garyfan was the same Sean Sohr (to which he has repeatedly tried to explain, that he is NOT the same guy).

The real Sean Sohr goes under “Sean Sohr The Bikini Artist”, NOT Garyfan!
I must remind you that this 3 hour video containing 99% of these quotes is her defending herself.

Rebecca: “When I was showing all of this to Jed0Bread, explaining why I fired [Sean Sohr], and why my girlfriend Leslie banned Sean from my server, Jed’s mom came in and saw this and thought I hosted a child sex trafficking ring.”

While Enter’s team was investigating, they found another degenerate named Brandon Hackwith (AKA Brandon The Brony Pony).

Brandon is a voice actor on Rebeccah's projects. He has sent porn in servers with minors, asked for erotic audio of a minor, being racist, and so much more.

Despite tons of evidence to Brandon’s crimes, Rebeccah refused to get rid of him, stating that “there is no evidence” and “she’s known him for 7 years and he’s never been arrested”.

Brandon, as of March 15, was still on her team.

This means that Rebeccah has kept three predators on her server by “mistake”...

…or IS IT?

#2: Rebeccah is a groomer.

Rebeccah attempted to groom two people named Wes (who is MintKitten in the video) and another named Kota.

In a 3 hour long video that Rebeccah uploaded, she kink-shamed Kota's diaper fetish, and how it traumatized her saying "she has PTSD about diapers" (Kota has given permission from Enter to talk about this; Kota never posted about his diaper fetish on his main account prior to Rebeccah outing him). Rebeccah has this PTSD because her dog was put into diapers before it died.

Despite Rebeccah kink-shaming Kota, it is clear as day that Rebeccah herself as many fetishes, most notably for giantesses and masturbates five times per day.

Her avatar shows she likes belly buttons and rubber, with dozens of channels in her Discord server showing she has multiple fetishes. She also appears to like porn of people in the Storytime Animation community, who are real-life people (such as Jaiden Animations). Rebeccah favorited these things on her DeviantArt account.

She even appeared to branch out to the same diaper fetish she once thought was creepy, as she commissioned art attempting to stay anonymous (however, one of the characters uses the same hairstyle her avatar does).

Rebeccah's favorite type of porn... is porn of herself. She's even asked on her server for more porn of herself, if it's not in high quantities.

Kota didn't seem to have a problem with Kota's diaper fetish when he was 17. Kota and Wes released their entire DM history with Rebeccah on Discord. With Kota's it started with Rebeccah asking for editing advice. Rebeccah proves it's her by linking a video from her channel.

In the same DM, she linked Kota to her 18+ NSFW server. Despite Kota telling Rebeccah he won't be 18 until late February, Rebeccah does not immediately close the conversation, at first letting him in only to then change her mind about it.

She went on to tell Kota not to post porn, and then comes back in March asking Kota if he's 18 yet (to which he says yes). Rebeccah let Kota into the 18+ server as an adult.

Rebeccah's last messages with Kota has her wondering why she was blocked by Wes (who, again, previously went by Hope).

In December of 2019, Wes/MintKitten was 17. (Wes did not turn 18 until March 22, 2020) During this time, Rebeccah commissioned him for fetish artwork, complaining that he "always seemed to leave the belly button out of the drawings". In early March of 2020 (before Wes was 18), Rebeccah had a conversation with Wes/Mint about who will be the biggest giantess. Wes did not know that Rebeccah had this fetish at the time.

The day Wes turned 18, Rebeccah commented to him that “you gotta watch out for Quagmire”. She also made this very same joke with Lina, when they turned 18.

In 2020, Rebeccah (who was 24 at the time) was planning to move in with a person named LovelyLina as soon as they turned 18 (Lina's 18th birthday was on September 9th of that year); Rebeccah had stated about these intentions even before this person turned 18.

Eventually, Rebeccah broke up with Lina, falsely calling them an “abuser” on her "ban list". According to this DM, Lina called Ariana/N3K0Pan (the child predator) an abuser, and Rebeccah trusted N3K0Pan over Lina, and this is why she broke up with Lina. This also proves both Lina and child predator Ariana were in Rebeccah's inner circle at the same time.

Chapter #3: “Rebeccah is a manipulative asshole.”

In Rebeccah's 3 hour long video, she had 5 people give 5 testimonies. In one of these testimonies. Enter made a controversial point in his Homer Badman review (which is from 2016). Way back then, Enter said he would rather be raped than be accused of rape… up until the point that my would-be rapist got pregnant, in which case, he says being raped would be the worse experience. Rebeccah decided to argue against Enter's point by coercing someone in her inner circle to go into vivid detail about how they were raped (VIEWER DISCRETION HEAVILY ADVISED)

The testimony was 7 minutes long in full.

Basically, Rebeccah coaxed a deeply petrified woman into reliving her worst trauma and publicly display it on the internet, all to argue against Enter's point. Rebeccah now considers this person as an "abuser".

In the very same video, another woman gives a testimony about how Rebeccah helped deal with her mom's disgusting fart fetish. This testimony was even longer at 10 minutes.

The testimony ended up becoming a riot in the comments and a meme on places like Kiwifarms, with many people finding it funny.

Rebeccah is basically asking another woman to publicly reveal her mom's disgusting fart fetish to the internet.

Rebeccah asked these people to do this solely to defend herself. Rebeccah worked on this 3 hour video for a whole year and never considered that this "fart fetish" testimony may be embarrassing to this person that Rebeccah considered a "friend".

The entire 3 hour video is just Rebeccah implicating herself and everything she's ever done.

At one point in the video, there's a screenshot she put in where Cerra is criticizing Rebeccah for one of the behaviors that got her fired before she got fired, something Rebeccah repeatedly claims never happened.

Rebeccah ignores Cerra because she was more concerned that the person (Wes/MintKitten) she was attempting to groom blocked her. This was in Rebeccah's 3 hour response video.

Instead of Rebeccah addressing N3K0Pan and what she did wrong (like not banning her for more than half a year), she had a woman reveal her mom's embarrassing fart fetish to the entire internet.

The script to Rebeccah's video (which Enter's team wasn't able to find completely) was even longer than the video itself, within the script is an argument that Rebeccah hated welfare (despite being disabled) among other stupid points. She doubled down on this argument later in her Discord.

Despite being a trans woman, Rebeccah misgenders and deadnames Wes to this day (the same person she tried to groom). Rebeccah lies about this by saying she doesn't deadname people in the same 3 hour long video.

Despite Rebeccah claiming that calling her Star or StarGiantProductions is deadnaming her, on her (now-deleted) YouTube channel, she still uses her deadname as the title of her flagship series on her channel.

Rebeccah doesn't seem to have a problem with seizures (despite people dying from seizures) and prefers them to YouTubers making side bar blurs on cartoons made in 4:3 aspect ratio (despite being a standard YouTube practice).

Skipping over two more testimonies (neither of which are particularly noteworthy), the final one is by her former artist, Matti. This is the artist Rebeccah hurried, didn't properly pay or credit, and then finally left of his own accord.

Matti no longer stands by the testimony he made in Rebeccah's video. He made a new testimony on Enter's video.

Matti's testimony

While Matti was helping Rebeccah with a Amphibia video by making a drawing for her, he made an off-hand comment by saying the eyes of her in the drawing made her look seductive, at which point she said that if he masturbates to any photos of her, don't let his girlfriend at the time catch me doing it.

This made Matti feel very unconscionable (uncomfortable?) and it didn't help that he was dealing with depression after the death of a friend of his.

Even worse, both Rebeccah and Matti had girlfriends at the time that she made these comments. Matti decided to give Rebeccah an internal "three strike" system. If she had crossed all strikes, Matti would quit working for her.

From Matti:

"The first strike is when the abuse video released and how she gave a big infamous stink in her script and how she hates people who live off of disability income like I do."

"The second is when she posted nude photos of herself on her Discord server. I'm not joking. I was in a mall when that happened and when I saw those it almost made me throw up."

"The third was last June when she harassed Mr. Enter on DeviantArt, basically rendering her 'be better video' completely pointless. That was when I finally quit my job."

Despite already surpassing the "three strike system", Rebeccah somehow added more strikes. From Matti:

"The first bonus strike is when she told me to give up on my girlfriend who left me. This was during my time of serious depression, that was a lot worse than the first incident."

“Another bonus strike was when she wrote this ‘contract’ where if you ‘sign it’, you have to let her use your OC and avatar in any video she wants, whether you want her to or not. I know this because my avatar is in her ‘Finding Dory video’ even though I didn’t sign it.”

“A third bonus strike was when I didn’t receive payment for a bedroom background I drew for her latest ranking video - and likely wouldn’t have received payment for it had my best friend in real life not given her shit for it. That one really made me want to cut ties with her for good!”

Afterwards Matti cut all ties with her, blocking her on all his social media platforms. As such, Rebeccah lies about Matti and his mutuals to his other mutuals, calling him and his mutuals "abusers".

Matti tells his friends that haven't already cut ties with Rebeccah to do so as he wants them to have better lives than deal with her nonsense.

End of testimony

Rebeccah has (at least twice) stolen artwork from others without properly crediting them.

Enter clarifies that not everyone in Rebeccah’s inner circle are bad people and that Matti was lucky to get out.

Rebeccah also made a “smash or pass” video, where she has a ‘funny’ skit of dragging in a person who identifies as asexual to “play along with it”.

Okay, so you know by this point: Rebeccah Kruleski is horrible. She has groomed minors, enabled groomers, and defended groomers. And abused people on her team.

Enter describes her as the embodiment of The Monstrous Clown.

However, there’s one thing she did that… crossed the line. To the point of Enter finally attempting to pursue legal action.

Chapter #5: “Oops!”

In February 2024, Rebeccah had a $25,000 crowdfunding campaign on IndieGogo for a show called “Witches” where “Rebeccah Starlight”, a “good, non-evil witch” that was cursed, is gonna “prove to the world” that she’s still her nice self, and was able to “beat society, and prove to everyone that she wasn’t evil”. According to the campaign trailer, she has to go through “prejudice, hardship, friend loss, betrayal, and other witch trials, per say”.

Rebeccah admits she has been working on this "dream project of hers" for 10 years and already has "the writing, the scripts, the search for voice actors/actresses, and editors… almost everything is done."

However, she brings up the hurdle of financial costs and then begs for people to support her financially so you can see her "true talent". She promises to "give out rewards" such as early screenings and art posters on her series to those that donate.

With your help, you can finally make her dreams come true (not anymore lol).

(i've been informed by a Reddit user in DMs that this project was basically gonna be "avatars" with emotes a la Mr Enter style, with no animation at all. Just voice actors and still characters with emotes. She wanted $25,000 for this.)

Rebeccah's IndieGogo was a Flexible Funding campaign, meaning that, as long as she crossed a threshold of $500, even if she didn't meet her goal she would get every cent donated to her. The campaign ended with 4 backers donating $520; this means she managed to (just barely) cross said threshold.

While some people on Enter's investigation team speculated she donated the $520 herself, Enter pointed out that this would be an incredibly stupid thing to do since you have to pay taxes on the money you get from crowdfunding campaigns. It'd be a complete waste, and she would lose money anyways.

The four people who did donate ended up receiving a self-insert fanfiction of Madoka Magica (yes, really). Which are very poorly written and much of the fanfics aren't even finished.

A reminder that Rebeccah Kruleski wanted $25,000 to make this. It is not only made by a heinous scumbag but is also illegal to make. It is copyright infringement.

There is a palette swap of a character from Madoka and also plucks names from the Madoka series in her fanfics.

Since Rebeccah crossed the $500 line, she is now technically liable to legal action.

Mr. Enter: "People paid for this, and legally, they are entitled to get this. And Rebeccah isn't just gonna run with the money is she? No, she's not gonna run with the money at all. That's not good enough in Rebeccah Land."

The literal fucking day after she ended this crowdfunding campaign, she posted that she "got scammed"; apparently some guy was claiming to make Monsters Vs. Aliens 2: The Movie. The guy then says he'll give Rebeccah $3,000 if she keeps on paying increasing increments.

"Basically it's a Boomer-bait scam that's one level below the Nigerian phone prince."

Because Rebeccah Kruelski is Rebeccah Kruelski, she keeps donating more and more money - up to $1,700 by her own account. She then uploads and records her messages of her being scammed as if it's supposed to prove something.

Matti then testifies again.

Matti's second testimony

Right as Matti gained the confidence to start a Patreon and start his own comic series also involving witches, Rebeccah launched her IndieGogo for a show called Witches; Matti describes it (in his own words) as a "less tragic, more wholesome Madoka Magica knockoff".

Rebeccah is fully aware of Matti's idea for making a comic series, as Matti posted concept art on her Discord. Rebeccah tried to coax Matti into donating to her campaign, not to mention one of her characters is very similar both in design and character to one of Matti's characters in his comic series. Matti ranted in comments sections about how her campaign isn't going to work and tells Rebeccah that this isn't going to get her $25,000.

End of testimony

Enter states this:

"Forget that this person is Rebeccah. Imagine this same series of events being done by The Completionist or Butch Hartman. Imagine someone asking for $25,000 in a Flexible Funding campaign, completely lying about what they're actually doing, getting money out of this, and then, the day, the very day the crowdfunding campaign ends, 'oops… it was all stolen! my bad!' To be fair, maybe Rebeccah really is just that stupid. If that's the case, she'll have to prove it in court."

ENTER'S TEAM IS TAKING LEGAL ACTION

Enter's team has reported the crowdfunding campaign to both the FCC and IndieGogo.

This isn't even the most damning thing Rebeccah has done, legally speaking.

Rebeccah doesn't seem to comprehend "libel" and "slander" considering she associated Garyfan with "the underage bikini girl guy" Sean Sohr, along with all sorts of defamation in her ban list.

Enter does acknowledge that defamation cases are notoriously hard to prosecute. Enter is not a private figure; for him to win a defamation case, someone would have to lie about him with malicious intent and it has to cause damages to the person that lied about him.

Enter has deemed that Rebeccah has managed to make a case against herself; he is going to pursue legal action.

Many of the people Rebeccah has shit-talked are private figures, or at the least very close to it.

To break it down:

Jordan/ChikoCheez: was not a public figure when Rebeccah started her tantrums, only recently walking into that space after making a comic series.

Grace: Arguably not a public figure.

Wes (the person Rebeccah attempted to groom): Not by any circumstance a public figure.

Also, one more illegal action by Rebeccah: she apparently recorded conversations Enter and his team had in their private work server without the consent of either Enter or his team.

Enter then played one of the recordings Rebeccah took.

Rebeccah and Enter both live in a two-party consent state, which means she needs Enter's permission to record him as well as display it, which are both separate crimes. Enter clearly states he did not give any permission for Rebeccah to record, and no one knew she was recording, let alone gave her any permission.
Enter argues this proves defamation as he finds there are only two possible explanations for this:

"Either she records everyone all the time due to some kind of paranoia, or (the biggest lie she keeps repeating), that she didn't know [Enter's team] were going to fire her, and this is her recording ahead of time so she could try to get some dirt on Enter and his team (the same reason she has the screenshots of Enter's server, despite being banned immediately after being fired)"

Rebeccah also somehow had screenshots of Enter's server despite being banned immediately after she was fired.

CONCLUSION

Enter's team has now filed a criminal complaint against Rebeccah.

Enter's full statement on the matter:

"As this video goes up, the next course of action for the investigation team is to report as much what we found to as many authorities as we can find. Much of this already has been reported, if everything has gone according to plan."

"This video is not monetized. This was intentional. I didn't want to censor myself as much as possible. Any censorship has just been done to avoid being age-gated. I wanted to talk about Rebeccah's crimes as starkly as I possibly could."

"Unfortunately, lawsuits and lawyers are expensive. In the next few weeks or so, I will be figuring out exactly how to pursue civil and criminal charges against Rebeccah Kruleski with the entire investigation team. With any and all legal recourse that I possibly can."

“To do that, I have to make a Gofundme. It’s not something I want to do, but as I said, lawyers and lawsuits are expensive, and Rebeccah needs to pay for everything that she’s done.”

“If this whole ordeal was just me, I wouldn’t ask. If you can’t spare a few bucks, that’s fine. All I really ask is that you spread this video as much as possible.”

“Rebeccah is not a joke. She’s not just a thorn in my side anymore. She has hurt so many people. My closest friends and so many people that I didn’t even know were suffering in such terrible ways. Members of the team are going to try and do what they can to help Rebeccah’s many, many victims.”

“A question that I know will be asked is… ‘why me?’ Why did Mr. Enter make a video on StarGiantProductions? Even though i’ve done it before.... like, i’m not a drama guy. I don’t like making videos like this. It’s like, once every few years at most.”

“That’s even taking into consideration that everyone knows that Rebeccah is tangential to me. And I will say, Rebeccah’s continued existence on the internet makes me feel… guilty is the wrong word. But I feel… actually and actively dirty, that I may have given Rebeccah any sort of relevance by bringing her into my staff.”
“As for, ‘why me making this video?’ For the longest time, I guess I was expecting someone else to do it. This wasn’t my area of expertise, and I thought that Rebeccah was the kind of lolcow that tends to attract attention. But no one came. There was always bigger fish to fry.”

“She would’ve completely avoided attention from the world around her if she didn’t fuck up during the whole N3K0Pan/Ariana situation. But even from my distance to the whole event, I learned more, and more, and more. I couldn’t sit on my hands anymore. I had to do something. Cause well, somebody had to do something. I had to put all of this shit to a stop.”

“And as I investigated myself, it seemed like no one had the full picture of who Rebeccah Kruelski really was. Really is. And many of the people who did try to get involved ended up making things so much worse.”
“What i’m about to say is only tangentially related, but it has to be stated. A name that kept coming up again and again in the StarGiant investigation was MysticMongrel. Fuck MysticMongrel. They are worse than Rebeccah. The shit that she’s allegedly done, is something I will never, ever forgive. And if Mongrel gets close to any member of my team ever again, they are next to get a video like this, and I will find every measure that I can to contact law enforcement. I don’t even care. The things that Mongrel is accused of made me feel nauseous and also caused me to break down.“

“I got nauseous a lot during this video. I was horrified a lot during this video. Even had to cry at times. I’m not ashamed to admit that. I haven’t had a good night’s sleep in a week. People laugh at Rebeccah. I’m going to continue to say… I do not find this funny. She can say as much stupid shit as she wants. That’s not the point. I didn’t imagine that the rabbit hole went as deep as it did. And I have a feeling that this is only the tip of the iceberg.”

“Y’know, I portray myself as a detective solving mysteries here, but I really am only an amateur when it comes to these real life, super serious situations. I can’t believe that Rebeccah is as stupid as she portrays herself.”

“And my darkest nightmares, the worst fear of this whole situation, is that Rebeccah is not as shameless as she lets on. This person that displays her crimes for the world to see, admits that she did wrong, proudly… thinks somehow admitting every single crime that she did exonerates her. She displays her fetishes out in the open, including sexualized depictions of minors, sexualized depictions of real people in the YouTube community. Does this person really have no shame? Or is there something darker lurking in the closet just underneath the surface? I hope not. I’d like to be able to sleep again tonight.”

“I also hope it’s clear why I had to make this video, and I hope to any divine power it’s the last time I ever have to make any one like this.”

“Rebeccah, I say this to you. I am going to pursue every legal and criminal channel against you possible. I do not care if I bleed myself try, use everything I got. You have gone too far. I know i’ll never get through to you. I’ll never change you. I’ll never convince you that you did anything wrong. I know that. You will never change. You will always be this broken person. But I do whatever I can to help the people that you hurt, and also stop more people from getting into your web. And i’m not letting you run.”
“Rebeccah, my team has archived everything. Your entire internet presence. Every video on your channel has been downloaded. Your Twitter, your Deviantart, your Discord server. It’s all archived. You are not allowed to run.”

Enter then plays a brief clip of Rebeccah.

Rebeccah: “I have a rule about my takes. If they are 2022 and onwards, they are fair game. But anything 2021 and prior is not allowed.”

Mr. Enter responds:

“Yeah, and let’s see if that’s a good legal defense, fucker. If you try to jump to another account, we will find it, we will identify it, I will put it on blast. You are not escaping this, Rebeccah. This is who you are. This is your presence on the internet forever, as long as I still stand.”
“To my audience. Please signal boost this as much as possible. I want as many people as possible to know who Rebeccah is and what she has done. If you make a video on Rebeccah, send it to my social media email. As long as the video is accurate and doesn’t break TOS, we will make a community post featuring every video we get sent through here. Once a week. And while the next few weeks will be very busy, the team will do our very best to accept and reply to interviews.”

“I’m even going to leave my Twitter DMs open, that should let you know how serious the situation is. Tomorrow i’m planning on having a stream at 8 PM Eastern Standard Time to further talk about Rebeccah. And answer any questions that you guys might have. I’ll see you all then. Please tay safe and take care. My name is Johnathan Rozanski, TheMysteriousMrEnter, signing out. Regular programming will resume shortly.”

“My sympathies go out to everyone Rebeccah and her associates have hurt.”

- Jonathan Rozanski, “TheMysteriousMrEnter”
